AGGRAVATED ASSAULT .-- Last night between six and seven o'clock, an aggravated assault was made by Charles, Bate upon his stepmother, who resides with her husband on Pitt street, near the corner of Wolfe. Chas. Bute, accompanied by Augustus Steers, John Callan and Henry Long, all shipmates aboard the United States Coast Survey vessel Hassler, Captain Clarence Fendall, now lying above the Long Bridge, visited this city yesterday, and while his comrades remained outside of his father's residence, he entered it, and after advising his father to return to Washington and live again with his first wife, committed the assault alluded to, by attacking his step-mother, while his father was out of the room, with a knife and billy. The wounds he inflicted are not serious. The police were soon informed of the occurrence, and after considerable trouble,

YESTERDAY .- The weather yesterday was pleasant and agreeable though somewhat cloudy in the evening. The services at the Methodist Protestant Church were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Sweet; Rev. Mr. Pitzer preached at the Second Presbyterian church, and Rev. F. A. Dyson at the Methodist Episcopal church. At St. Mary's (Catholic) Rev. Mr. McKim, being expected in a few attendance. days. The pulpits of the other churches were filled by the resident pastors.

THE NATIVE VIRGINIAN.—Messrs. Bagby and Stofer have issued, from Orange Court House the first number of the Native Virginian. The paper is handsomely gotten up and well printed. Its reading matter is excellent, and two original articles which it contains are wor thy of special mention. It is under the editorial conduct of our old friend Dr. George W. Bagby, alias "Moziz Addums," whose hand some salutatory is a model of good English and sound sense. We wish the enterprise success.

RACE ON THE NATIONAL COURSE.—To-morrow afternoon, weather permitting, an exciting race will take place on the National Course, the famous gray gelding Coldwater Billy being entered against a running horse, the former to pace one mile while the latter runs one mile and a quarter. The race will be mile heats, best two in three, for $200 a side.

THE SMOOT HOMICIDE. - Johnson, charged with the murder of Smoot, in July last, was brought out of jail in Washington on Saturday last on a writ of habeas corpus, his counsel making an effort to secure his release on bail. In consequence of the absence of an important witness, the case was postponed until to day.

SUBSCRIPTIONS SOLICITED. - Mrs. Gordon Beale, from Gordonsville, has visited this city for the purpose of soliciting subscriptions, to aid in the rebuilding of the Methodist Church, in the village of which she is a resident, which was destroyed during the war. Donations for the desired object can be sent to this office.

POLICE REPORT-MAYOR'S OFFICE.-Mr. John Philips arrested a man on Saturday night last, and carried him to the Watch-House as a suspicious character—he having been seen to en-ter surreptitiously the hold of a steam tug lying at the wharf. He gave his name next morning at the Mayor's Office as William Williams, but after a while said it was William Forbes. He was dubious as to his nativity, but finally settled upon London. In consequence of the suspicious circumstances surrounding him, the Mayor committed him to jail for further examination. It is thought that he is one of the party who broke out of the jail at Fairfax

Court-House. Augustus Steers, John Callan and Henry Long, as parties to an assault committed last night by Charles Bute upon his step mother, were committed to jail for further examination.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF POTOMAC COUN-TY, VA .- By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Westmoreland county, Va, pronounced at the October term thereof, in 1857, in the suit, in said Court, of King vs. Watson and others, the subscribers, therein appointed Special Commissioners for the purpose, will offer for sale, to the highest bidder. at public auction, at Lamkin's store, on SATURDAY, the 7th day of December, 1867, the TRACT OF LAND, in the decree and proceedings men-tioned, called and known as "KINGSALE"— (sometimes called "Kinsale,") owned in his lifetime by Warren D. Watson. This tract of land contains 493 acres. It is situated immediately on the Potomac river, by which it is bounded for some distance, and lies intermediate between Rozier's and Monroe's Creeks, being separated from each on the upper and lower sides by a farm on either side. It was formerly a stated steamboat landing, and as the water is bold the shore can be approached very near by vessels of the largest class. As may be supposed, it possesses all the advantages of the water and its products.

There is a comfortable two-story frame of DWELLING HOUSE, with two large rooms and a passage below, with closets, and two rooms above, and kitchen-barns and stable in substantial repair. The quality of the land is of medium fertility, with fences, and wood and timber sufficient to supply the wants of the farm. The residence i- believed to be as healthy as any situation on the river. The subscribers deem it unnecessary to give a more minute description, as they presume that any person desirous of purchasing will visit the premises and judge for himself. They will, however, answer any special enquiries in regard to the land that may be addressed to them, or either of them.

TERMS-The land will be sold for as much cash as is necessary to pay the costs of the suit, and expenses of sale, and the residue on a cred it of one, two and three years, taking from the purchaser bonds, with approved personal se-curity, for the deferred payments, and retaining the title until further order of Court Address,

OMMISSIONERS' SALE
OF VALUABLE LAND,
IN KING GEORGE COUNTY, VA. By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of King George county, pronounced in the suit of Quisenberry's Administratrix vs. Quisenberry Quisenverry's Administratrix vs. Quisenverry and others, the subscribers, therein appointed Special Commissioners for that purpose, will expose to public sale, on THURSDAY, the 5th day of December, 1867, (that being Court day) at King George C. H., the tract of land, in the decree and proceedings mentioned, called "THE COTTAGE."

"The Cottage" contains 724 acres. It is beautifully located in King George county, on Machodoc Creek, near its entrance into the Potomac river, and is bounded on two sides by that creek and Williams' creek. The landing on the farm is accessible to steamers and sail vessels of a large class, offering the greatest facilities for delivering grain or wood. The improvements consist of a small but confortable Frame Dwelling House, good Barns, Stables, Corn Houses, Servant's Houses, Ice House, pump, &c. The farm is in fine condition, the land level, well adapted to the production of corn, wheat, grass, &c., and is justly considered the most desirable real estate in that portion of the county. It is well enclosed with good and substantial fencing, and the several fields also separated by good fences. There is a plenty of water, and timber in abundance for the use of the plantation. It is, altogether, a most desir-able tract of land, for all agricultural purposes. The TERMS OF THE SALE, as prescribed by the decree, are: One third of the purchase money in cash; one third in 12 months, and the will positively be made at the time and place red to sell to Merchants and at wholesale in New ARLES W. GREEN.
